Editorial Expertise

touchREVIEWS in Oncology & Haematology is supported by various levels of expertise:

- Guidance from an Editorial Board consisting of leading authorities from a variety of oncology and haematology disciplines.
- Invited contributors who are recognized authorities from their respective fields.
- Peer review – conducted by experts appointed for their experience and knowledge of a specific topic.
- An experienced team of Editors and Technical Editors.

Peer Review

- On submission, all articles are assessed by the Editor to determine their suitability for inclusion and appropriateness for peer review.
- The Editor identifies appropriate reviewers, who are selected on the basis of their specialist knowledge in the relevant area, following consultation with a member of the Editorial Board where necessary.
- We aim to have the final peer review decision within 4 weeks.
- Following review, papers are either accepted without modification, returned to the author(s) to incorporate required changes, or not accepted for publication.
- The Editor reserves the right to accept or reject any proposed amendments on the advice of the Editorial Board and reviewers.

Submissions and Instructions for Authors

- The Editor commissions articles with guidance from the Editorial Board and unsolicited articles are welcomed.
- The Editor is always keen to hear from authors wishing to discuss potential submissions, and will give due consideration to any proposals. Please contact the Editor for further details.
- The 'Instructions for Authors' information is available for download at www.touchONCOLOGY.com
